I was appalled by your decision to give Omar Ahmed Sayid Khadr, a murderer and terrorist more than 10 million dollars.

It is a crime in Canada to, among other things, "knowingly participate in or contribute to, directly or indirectly, any activity of a terrorist group for the purpose of enhancing the ability of any terrorist group to facilitate or carry out a terrorist activity".

Instead of laying additional charges you reward him instead?

Your decision is a slap in the face to the families of every Canadian soldier who died or was wounded from an improvised explosive device that could very well have been made by Omar himself.

It shows a total disrespect to all soldiers who served in Afghanistan, many of whom are still fighting with your government to receive proper benefits.

Where is the $10.5 million for Major Mark Campbell (Ret'd) (R) who lost his legs to an IED in Afghanistan and was stripped of his lifetime military pension? He is not alone.

You announced this on July 4th. Was this done intentionally to insult and affront our American allies?
